

Kom-Mit-Nadev – German-Israeli Volunteer-Program for young Israelis in Germany September 2014 – August 2015

The program Kom-Mit-Nadev offers the bilateral educational frame for a one year volunteer service in Germany. Within the program of Kom-Mit-Nadev, young Israelis are invited for a 12 months' volunteer service in civil society projects located in different places and institutions in Germany. In order to enable this service, Israeli 'sending organizations' cooperate with German 'hosting organizations', offering the young volunteer the option for a volunteer service in a selected project with kids, youngsters, elderly citizens or handicapped people – each project focuses on a different field: Education, social welfare, ecology or commemoration.

The list below shows the partnerships of each two organizations (an Israeli and a German) for volunteer projects/placements offered for the volunteering year 2014-2015.

For more information on the program please look at: www.Kom-Mit-Nadev.org

Are you interested?

The first step: Please look out for a suitable Israeli sending organization on the list.

The process of building up partnerships for this volunteer program between Israeli sending organizations, German hosting organizations, placements of volunteering in Germany and the volunteers themselves is an intensive process. Once you have contacted any of the Israeli sending organizations or the contact person of Kom-Mit-Nadev, the process of finding a suitable project for you to volunteer can start. The Israeli sending organization/the Kom-Mit-Nadev contact person will provide you with further information. The Israeli sending organization is responsible for any communication and plan being made with the German partner organizations. We encourage you to contact any of them!

Looking forward to hearing from you!
